WHY FAMILIES CHOOSE SPECTRUM

Beyond Skills Training

We help students move beyond skill acquisition and build real-world social performance in a safe, nurturing, and fun environment.

Collaborative Expertise

Our approach draws from speech, education, recreation, behavior, and counseling to support meaningful growth.

Engaging Instruction

Lessons are thoughtfully crafted and reinforced through direct instruction, activities, and practice.

Lasting Progress

Students build confidence, connection, and practical skills that carry over into daily life.

GROUPS AVAILABLE

School Age Groups

Students in 1st through 12th grade attend one-hour groups once per week, focused on the needs of the peer group as a whole.

Adult Groups

Focused on social needs that may arise at work, in post-secondary education, and in personal relationships.

Transition to Adulthood

For ages 18-22 navigating college, work, social, organizational, and independent living challenges.

HOW ENROLLMENT WORKS

- ✓ Complete an application online at www.SpectrumSocial.net or email Info@SpectrumSocial.net to request an application.
- ✓ Applications are reviewed as received, and groups are formed when appropriate peer groups can be created.
- ✓ Placement depends on client needs, availability, and final group determination by the administrator.
- ✓ New clients may be scheduled for an initial assessment if a suitable group appears available.
- ✓ Initial assessment fee: $100.
- ✓ A payment is due the week before group starts to reserve your spot.

ATTENDANCE & IMPORTANT NOTES

- ✓ Consistent attendance supports the best progress for each group.
- ✓ Tuition is due in full regardless of attendance.
- ✓ Parents of children ages 12 and younger are required to wait in the lobby for the duration of the group.
- ✓ Payment may be made by cash, check, or credit card.
